Wm Lloyd Garrison Esq

Boston

Mass

I rejoice in the success of the Convention held in in Worcester on the 23rd inst. My heart was with you there. It is my inability to be there that I have sent a letter but I have not been able to write, which I was sick.

My health has slowly improved since I was brought back to my former home. Rev. John Bridgman is my love and he is much better as you will be convinced by the perusal of these imperfect lines which appear before you. I shall not dare to hope for ability to trace another line. But God has been better than all our fears & expectations I am called the living to praise Him & to adore His gracious Goodness & Mercy to me.

Rev Thompson

I rejoice that my esteemed Countryman is with you again in the American Continent. I trust & hope that his present sojourn amongst us at this most eventful & interesting juncture will result in his own satisfaction & great benefit to our cause I shall rejoice in an opportunity for a personal interview, but I totally despair of receiving the desired gratification. My best respects to Rev Thompson with earnest desires for his every happiness, continued life & increasing usefulness. My most affectionate regards with unceasing love to yourself, dear Rev & I believe

Ever Yours Anne Dewes

Wm Brockenden has just returned one of the vilest insults offered by the Boston citizens to my noble minded countryman Wm G. Thomson! I feel the intense loathing detestation & sovereign contempt for such treason & disgraceful conduct on the part of American citizens! Oh! shame to the country! — Thank God I am an English woman! & love my own noble country! I will ever love her "while yet a Nook is left where English minds & manners rise
Shall be constrained to love her"
God protect her! F. Grow Bleeding & outraged.

GARRISON MSS.

Dear Bro^r Garrison

In the absence of rational hope of ever being capable of finishing the piece of work begun so long since – I herewith, with a mixture of regret & a sort of melancholy satisfaction forward you per Express the fragment of unfinished work I ventured to presume to offer you, when at Northampton, as a very feeble expression of my sincere and fervent wish, if it were by any means in my power, to promote the interest of the Bazaar Commonly held in Old Faneuil Hall to promote a noble Anti-Slavery Enterprise. It is all I can do – and my dear Bro^r – you will please either offer, or withhold this poor fragmentary expression of my hearty good will as to you personal Judgment may decide. If you think proper to offer so insignificant a thing to the Ladies of the Committee you will do me the favor just to write a Label to append by way of apology & explanation of the design & wishes of the Abolitionist Invalid donor.

My heart long prevalent unceasing prayers are with you! I wish to say to those dear self-sacrificing Ladies in one word, "Thank God, I take part" – Faint not, nor slacken your efforts in behalf of Truth & Suffering Humanity. The end of your Labours will be crowned with the consummation of heavenly circled – Success – Victory! –
